If You Read This

It will be to learn that the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice recommend, in the strongest terms possible, each and every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, "liver complaint," torpid liver, or biliousness, chronic bowel affections, and all catarrhal diseases of whatever region, name or nature. It is also a specific remedy for all such chronic or long standing cases of catarrhal affections and their resultants, as bronchial, throat and lung disease (except consumption) accompanied with severe coughs. It is not so good for acute colds and coughs, but for lingering, or chronic cases it is especially efficacious in producing perfect cures. It contains Black Cherry bark, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot, Stone root, Mandrake root and Queen's root—all of which are highly praised as remedies for all the above mentioned affections by such eminent medical writers and teachers as Prof. Bartholow, of Jefferson Med. College; Prof. Hare, of the Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., of Cincinnati; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., of Cincinnati; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago, and scores of others equally eminent in their several schools of practice.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for like purposes that has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any number of ordinary testimonials. Open publicity of its formula is the best possible guaranty of its merits. A glance at this published formula will show that "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no poisonous, harmful or habit-forming drugs and no alcohol—chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead. Glycerine is entirely unobjectionable and besides is a most useful agent in the cure of all stomach as well as bronchial, throat and lung affections. There is the highest medical authority for its use in all such cases. The "Discovery" is a concentrated glyceric extract of native, medicinal roots and is safe and reliable.

GOT HIS HAIR BACK.

Was Perfectly Bald When He Started to Use Newbro's Herpicide.

Frederick Manuell, Maryland block, Butte, Montana, bought a bottle of Newbro's Herpicide, April 6, '99, and began to use it for entire baldness. The hair follicles in his scalp were not dead and in 20 days he had hair all over his head. On July 2 he writes, "and today my hair is as thick and luxuriant as any one could wish." Newbro's Herpicide works on an old principle and with a new discovery—destroy the cause and you remove the effect. Herpicide destroys the germ that causes dandruff, falling hair, and finally baldness, so that with the cause gone the effect cannot remain. Stops falling hair at once and a new growth starts. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.
Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

PAIN

Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause. Pain is congestion, pain is blood pressure—nothing else usually. At least, so says Dr. Shoop, and to prove it he has created a little pink tablet. That tablet—called Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablet—coaxes blood pressure away from pain centers. Its effect is charming, pleasingly delightful. Gently, though safely, it surely equalizes the blood circulation.

If you have a headache, it's blood pressure.

If it's painful periods with women, same cause.

If you are sleepless, restless, nervous, it's blood congestion—blood pressure. That surely is a certainty, for Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets stop it in 20 minutes, and the tablets simply distribute the unnatural blood pressure.

Bruise your finger, and doesn't it get red, and swell, and pain you? Of course it does. It's congestion, blood pressure. You'll find it where pain is—always. It's simply Common Sense.

PUBLIC SALE OF A GAMBLER.

The public sale of a gambler on a block used for auctioning off negroes paid for a clock for the city of Alexandria, Va., just across the Potomac river from Washington.

The story is to the effect that on one occasion Alexandria was infested by a party of shrewd gamblers from the southwest. At that time an interesting game could sometimes be made up with citizens of high standing, but who enjoyed a brush at cards.

One of these, a supposed pious merchant, fell into a snare which was set for him by the visiting gamblers, aided by a local stool pigeon. After a series of games the pious gentleman found himself out of pocket several thousand dollars and the gamblers in possession of his notes for large amounts.

The citizen "made good." But a lucky thought enabled him to bring about his revenge on the leader of the blacklegs.

He was acquainted with the fact that there was an old law of the State—and a similar law is still on the statute books—in which it was made and provided "that if any man cannot show that he is pursuing some lawful means of procuring a livelihood, he shall be sold or hired out at public auction, or sale, to prevent by his labor, his becoming chargeable to the town."

Going before a justice of the peace the "good citizen" entered a charge against the leading gambler, who was immediately arrested by the town marshal. He was carried to court, tried, convicted and the sentence was that he be sold at public action.

The "good citizen's" programme went through without a slip. The gamester was at first disposed to treat the matter as a huge joke, believing that with the outlay of a little of his easily earned money he could secure his freedom.

But he did not know the temper of the Virginians. He spent the night in prison and was taken on the following morning to the "block" and put up for sale. The first bid came from the "good citizen," and it was $100. Bidding for his own freedom, the blackleg quickly offered twice that sum.

This was raised to $300 by the fleeced merchant, and in turn to $400 by the gambler. While the assembled crowd cheered and laughed the two alternately responded to the auctioneer's appeals until the bidding reached $2,000.

Then the gambler begged for mercy, pleading poverty. He declared that his companions had deserted him and carried off the larger part of all winnings made in the town. The "good citizen" calmly raised the bid to $2,100.

There was no alternative, that gambler must either be forced into a service of degrading labor, under the supervision of a man who had small cause to love him, or he must go on bidding for himself.

When the bidding reached $3,500 he was permitted to pay over the amount and depart from Alexandria, a crowd of hooting, yelling men and boys following him to the wharf.

The proceeds of the sale of the gambler were given to the town for the purpose of buying a town clock and building a steeple for the town hall and market house.

This was destroyed by fire in 1871, but a new structure was erected on the same site, the steeple and clock being made as near like the old ones as possible.

A Dangerous Deadlock.

The Winegrowers' Demonstration.

Yeiterday's monster demonstration by winegrowers marked the climax of the situation which has arisen because of a demand by the growers that the government stop the widespread adulteration of wine.

At the gigantic meeting held at Perpignan May 19 a resolution was passed that if the government did not give full satisfaction to the demands of the growers a civil strike would be inaugurated June 10. At a metting held after the parade yesterday Marcelin Albert referred to this reshlution and announced that the time had come for action. He invited the assembled multitude to swear solidarity of action, and immediately every hand was raised and cries of "We will stand or fall together!" and "We will not pay taxes!" were everywhere heard.

The Mayor of Narbonne will be the first to open the strike. He and the entire municipal council will resign today after having previously dismissed all municipal employes. Others will follow suit in the course of a few days.

The "ragged army" has been arriving in the city the last two days and night. It slept in the public buildings, in churches placed at its disposal by the bishop, in the parks and squares. The railroad provided over 400 special trains to transport the people.

At the time fixed for the parade the people lined up at appointed places without the slightest disorder. They numbered from 400,000 to 600,000 persons. A feature of the parade was the large proportion of women participating. Groups from various cities bore banners with inscriptions and carried coffins, guillotines, etc.

Afire on a Street Car.

A young women ablaze from head to foot, her filmy summer attire feeding flames that originated in a mysterious fashion, terrified passengers yesterday afternoon on a summer car of the Fox Chase line, Philadelphia. As a result Miss Margaret Chance, 18 years of age, is fighting for life in the Pennsylvania Hospital, scorched, blackened and blistered so that every moment is agony.

Miss Chance was out with a friend for a ride, and had secured a seat about in the center of an open car, on which three rear seats may be used by smokers. While talking with her girl friend smoke appeared from beneath the seat, accompanied by a smell of burning cloth. Miss Chance rose, with others, to seek its source and the breeze did the rest.

In less than a half minute there was nothing left of her apparel but her corset. Women screamed as the girl fell in a faint. Men were powerless to save her, but, grabbing off their coats, tried to protect her charred body while the ambulance came.

At the hospital it was found that she was frightfully blistered, but unless she inhaled some of the flame she has an even chance to recover. How she caught fire there is no way of discovering. It may have been a lighted cigar stump or cigarette that lay smoldering at her feet or a match head may have started the fire.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Trouble of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys, as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for sample and free Book. SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THE cross-examination of Harry Orchard, at Boise, Idaho, by his own confession the slayer of eighteen men with bullets and bombs, is likely to last through today and Tuesday and possibly longer. Orchard has told a tale of crime that spread over the last eleven years of his life, the first thirty years being the commonplace story of a Canadian farmhand. But beginning with 1897, he unfolded a career in which, to use the language of the leading counsel for the state, "assassination was a trade and murder a means of livelihood." Orchard, under the questioning of the state, spared no incident of his more recent life that might prove to the jury his readiness to slaughter for low wage, and how indifferent he had been as to the number or condition of his victims. The story brought out by the state was, however merely a synopsis of the play whose acts cover the years since 1899. In every act the climax sent a shudder through a crowded courtroom. Under cross-examination by counsel for Haywood Orchard has developed this series of tragedies up to the year 1904. Three more years and many murders are yet to be analyzed. For purposes of its own the defence is determined that Orchard shall retell his life story to the most diabolical or the most squalid detail before the men who are to pass on the question whether Haywood is guilty of hiring Orchard to murder former Governor Steunenberg at Caldwell, Idaho, on December 30, 1905. Slowly but surely the defence is developing the lines by which it hopes to break down the story of Harry Orchard, so far as it effects Haywood. If it is possible to heap further obloquy on the witness they have done so by proving him capable of petty crimes. By his own admission Orchard is a bigamist, a thief, a liar and an incendiary. He has played the traitor to his employers. He has deserted two wives and his children. All of these offences he has been forced to confess, but under a gruelling examination he has stuck to his story in general and detail, Orchard's confession equals anything to be found in the Wonderful Magazine and his atrocites and those of his associates should be expiated upon the highest gibbet that can be erected.

JINGOES are again operating the Japanese supplejack, and endeavoring to make people believe that a fist fight in a San Francisco bath house has brought about strained relations between the United States and the Mikado's country. According to dispatches printed today in certain newspapers under flaring headlines, Japanese societies of the Pacific coast are conspiring with the progressive party in Japan and are endeavoring to stir up anti-American feeling with the object of overthrowing the present Japanese ministry. Leaders of Japanese societies have, it is alleged, visited Washington and endeavored to coerce Ambassador Aoki into demanding an amendment of the Japanese immigration limitation law. Failing in this, they accuse the Japanese Ambassador of treachery, and will demand his recall. They would also force Foreign Minister Hayashi to demand an indemnity and an apology from the United States for the San Francisco incident. Ototaka Yamaoka and Count Okuma, heads of the progressive party are in the movement for the overthrow of the Japanese government. That such alarmist rumors are not likely to crystalize into facts is evident from the last sentence of the above, as it is shown that the Japanese are by no means united. A conservative element is holding the reins of government, and it is not likely to imbibe the reckless spirit of agitators. Besides the want of unanimity among her own people, Japan has about as much as she can conveniently handle at present in pacifying Korea and smoothing over frictions with China.

AT THE commencement exercises at Syracuse University at Syracuse, N. Y., yesterday, the baccalaureate sermon was delivered by Chancellor James R. Day. He said in part:

The great hosts of the people are in one common confusion, The distinction between the executive, judicial and legislative order is disappearing in a form of oligarchy named commissions, with an autocracy at its head as tyrannical as the world has ever known. The democracy of this great republic is rapidly becoming a farce. The infatuation of the people is a burning fever for which the only antifebrile is an appalling disaster, financial and political, from which there is little hope of escape. The sowing of anarchy and socialism has brought the reaping of the whirlwind of hatred of government and God's social order, while the ranting cant of tainted money is reviving an old form of pharisaism. Six billions of shrinkage in the properties of the people, the immense losses that have come to small holders and uncertainly and distrust in all business are a costly warning of the danger of riotous impulses and demagogic policies in commerce and trade.

ANOTHER storm is gathering in France, and there is an ominous calm that usually precedes the thunder claps. The winegrowers of that country are incensed at present conditions, and the government having failed to put a stop to the wholesale adulteration of wine, a civil strike began yesterday. A monster meeting in the vicinity of Montpelier followed in which six hundred thousand are said to have voiced their anger. The most significant act was the movement of a Coxey army to Montpelier on four hundred railway trains. Leaders of the agitation are calling for a Napoleon.

THE AUTHORITIES of Winchester do things the right way. On Saturday a young farmer from an adjoining county was given a long term in jail after being convicted of vandalism in Mount Hebron Cemetery. The evidence showed that the young man stole flowers from graves and attempted to cut monuments and tombstones with a pocketknife. Vandalism in the Alexandria cemeteries is a weekly occurrence and flowers are stolen from the graves almost as soon as they are placed there, but the vandals are seldom molested and go right along with their nefarious work.

From Washington.

Washington, June 10.

The threatened international incident between Japan and the United States, as a result of the disturbances in San Francisco, turns out to be merely an exhibition of ward politics on a large scale. The only international feature of it is that there happens to be in this country a number of Japanese who sympathize with the opposition party at home. It is a case of the outs wanting to get in office and using for that purpose every means in their power. So far as the two actual governments are concerned, the traditional friendship between the United States and Japan has not been disturbed and the San Francisco incident, where a Japanese restaurant was stoned by a mob, has been treated like any other trivial window smashing affair. The opposition party in Japan call themselves the progressives, and are headed by Count Okuma. They are ready to ride any hobby to get into power. The State Department here has been fully advised of the situation, and for that reason has consistently minimized the affair and has refused to get frightened over the reports of growing anti-American feeling in Japan. The department officials have kept silent on the subject, feeling that the explanation should come from Japanese sources. Recent interpellations of the government in Tokio for its "apparent inaction" in regard to the "grave diplomatic questions with the United States" and the publication of a demand for the recall of Ambassador Aoki, have finally induced the disclosure of the political plot.

The investigation of the bituminous coal carrying railroads, which the Department of Justice has been conducting for some months, has been concluded. The papers, including the recommendations of special counsel, are being prepared for submission to the attorney general. It is understood that the evidence of a conspiracy in restraint of trade is deemed sufficiently convincing upon which to base legal action.

The prosecution in the Holmes case today, called one of its star witnesses, in the person of Secretary Wilson. He was asked about the appointment and duties of the former assistant statician. He had been on the stand only a short time when adjournment was taken for the luncheon recess. Through his testimony, it is expected to prove how it was possible for Holmes to procure and communicate to his alleged confederates in Wall street, advance information regarding crop reports.

The suit in equity to dissolve the powder trust will be filed at Cincinnati, O., in a few days. Further delay has been made necessary by the Court at St. Paul deciding in the oil suit that the government need not confine its case to operations of the trust since its organization as a holding company. The bill, as prepared by District Attorney Macpherson has been approved.

It is officially admitted today that the War Department has called upon Lieutenant Colonel Charles G. Ayres, of the Fourteenth cavalry, now on leave at his home, Highland Falls, N. Y., adjacent to the military academy, at West Point, for a confirmation of denial of of the newspaper's reports critising the action of Secretary of War Taft in issuing orders barring his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Faifax Ayres from entering the academy reservation. If the statements attributed to Colonel Ayres in the reports sent out from New York and Highland Falls, are found true, doubtless he will be tried by a court-martial board.

Alfred K. Moe, the American Consul at Dublin, has sent a mail report to the State Department warning Americans from going to Dublin with the hope of obtaining employment at the Exposition being held in that city. He says there are no opportunites for side shows or businesses of any kind and that because of the great scarcity of employment all opportunities for work are given to natives.

It is said here that the single undue, in the Interstate Commerce law is going to save the "Jim Crow" car policy of the Southern Railroads. The law provides against "undue" discrimination between patrons of railroads. It is expected that the commission will find that the provision of "Jim Crow" accommodations for the colored people is not undue discrimination.

From the fact that Toledo Herrarte, the Guatemalan minister here, has received several despatches from Guatemala City in the past 24 hours, without mentioning the alleged occurrence, he does not place any credence in the report, and was assured today that so far as the State Department knew there was no foundation for the report.

Extensive preparations have been made by the Geological Survey, for continuing, this summer, on a larger scale than ever before, its investigation of the mineral resources of Alaska. There will be eleven parties of technical men in the field, some of whom have already begun their labors

Chancellor Day, in his baccalaureate sermon at the University of Syracuse, yesterday, predicted an appalling disaster as the result of what he considered the destructive policies of President Roosevelt.

Details of a disastrous fire in the Walters mines at Strathcond, Alberta, in which six men lost their lives reached Ottowa, Ont., today. The fire occurred early yesterday morning and caused about $10,000 damage.

It is said that while putting on a Masonic apron during the ceremonies incident to the laying of the cornerstone of the Masonic Temple in Washington on Saturday, President Roosevelt inadvertantly exposed a pistol which he carried in his hip pocket.

It is reported in Paris that J. Pierpont Morgan has secured the great Rodolph Kann art collection, which will be brought to this country. Advices received from Europe indicate that between $3,000,000 and $4,000,000 will be paid for the Kann collection.

Miss Julia Magruder, the well-known Virginia author, died at St. Luke's hospital, Richmond, late Saturday afternoon, after an illness extending over several weeks. She was fifty-two years old. She was the daughter of the late Allen Bowie Magruder.

Although the report that Prof. Hau had confessed that he had killed his mother-in-law is officially denied in Berlin, it is believed that when his wife last visited him he made certain admissions which definitely convinced her that he had murdered her mother.

"New York is for Roosevelt, the country is for him, and, in my judgment, he will be nominated and reelected." There were the words of Representative Sherman, of New York, the chairman of the republican congressional committee, as he left the White House Saturday after an interview with the President.

Messages received in Winchester announce the death of Lewis B. Moore in a hospital in New York on Saturday from locomotor ataxia. He was the eldest son of the late Col. L. T. Moore, of Winchester, and was about thirty-nine years old. He leaves a wife, several children, mother, two brothers and a sister.

The closing exercises of the eighty-second session of the University of Virginia began yesterday with the baccalaureate sermon, by Rev. W. W. Moore, president of the Union Theological Seminary, at Richmond. Last night the annual address before the Young Men's Christian Association was delivered by Rev. Henry Louis Smith, president of Davidson College, North Carolina.

Twenty-nine known dead and forty persons seriously injured constitute the list of casualties resulting from storms of wind and rain which swept over southern Illinois, Indiana, and central Kentucky Friday night and early Saturday. These fatal visitations came in the shape of cloudbursts, high winds, and electrical disturbances. The property damage is many thousands of dollars. Houses were swept away, bridges demolished, and thousands of acres of growing crops destroyed.

The schooner yacht Dervish, owned by H. A. Morse, of Marblehead, Mass., arrived first at Bermuda yesterday in the race from New York city. Her time for the 650 miles was 91 hours and 50 minutes. The yawl Hyperion crossed the line second, nine hours later. The Dervish gives time allowance to all other entries except the Priscilla. With the arrival at Hamilton today of the schooner Priscilla five of the twelve yachts which started from Sandy Hook last Wednesday on the 650 mile race are now in port there. While the other yachts have not been heard from, no anxiety is felt for their safety.

WHAT COL. AYRES SAYS.

Lieut. Col. Ayres, whose wife and daughter have been excluded from the reservation at West Point, says the officers who criticise his wife are telling falsehoods and that army courtsmartial are farces.

Warnings that his friendship for Gen. Leonard Wood would cost him his commission in the army have been repeatedly received by Col. Ayres, a statement he made public Saturday says. In defending his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Fairfax Ayres, from criticism by officers of the military academy and supporting her suit to recover $100,000 in damages from them, Col. Ayres, at West Point, said that he had been tried on many charges, and that he has been told many times that part of the animosity toward him had been caused by his friendship for Gen. Wood.

Mrs. Ayres plans to sue Secretary Taft for damages because of a letter of instructions that the secretary sent to her husband, Col. Charles G. Ayres, Fourteenth cavalry, United States army, forbidding his wife to go on the West Point reservation. Mrs. Ayres, who terms the letter "insulting and despicable," has turned it over to Mann Trice, New York City, her attorney, and the course to be pursued will depend upon Mr. Trice's advice.

An army officer said in Washington last night that Col. Ayres was talking too much and might have to stand a courtmartial. It is said that Col. Ayres is seeking notoriety.

Hunting for Train Wreckers.

Wheeling, W. Va., June 10.—Detectives are hunting for a clew of the persons who tried to wreck the Cleveland train on the Baltimore and Ohio, ten miles west of here late last night. A big bolt was driven into the ties. The train was carrying 100 passengers, but only the engine left the track.

A MISSISSIPPI TRAGEDY.

Four white men, three of them brothers all prominent in their county, and five or more negroes have been shot to death near Anding, Miss.; two negroes were lynched and a number of others wounded by a mob of avenging whites on the Trigg plantation, near Anding, Saturday afternoon, and the race riot is not yet quelled. The trouble was started by the refusal of a negro tenant on the plantation to obey orders issued by Trigg to do certain work. The refusal was accompanied by vile and insolent language, and the negro, cursing Trigg roundly, was knocked down by him.

As he arose the tenant drew a pistol, shooting Trigg, killing him instantly. He then fled to to his cabin, joined by armed friends, and barricading themselves, the negroes defied arrest.

Trigg's two brothers and a party of friends followed, and after a fierce fight forced the negroes into the open, but not until the two younger Triggs and a manager of the plantation were mortally wounded, all three dying shortly afterward.

The negro who killed the elder brother and two more were shot to death as they tried to escape, but three others got away and sought refuge at the home of another tenant, where they were re-enforced by from fifteen to fifty more blacks.

By this time the report of the trouble had reached Anding, and the plantations near, and the whites, grimly bent on a desperate revenge, gathered to the number of 200 and another battle was fought with Winchesters and shotguns.

No more of the whites are reported hurt, but two more negroes were killed. A number of blacks were wounded and two were captured. These two were strung up to the most convenient trees and left hanging.

The negro who started the trouble, Abe Johnson, was a leader of the negroes during reconstruction times, but since the negroes have been put of politics he and his family have been rated among the peaceful and law-abiding members of their race.

The Exposition.

Six hundred Norfolk business men, bankers, clerks and others, quit their work Saturday and proceeded to the Jamestown exposition grounds, where with picks, shovels and their hands, they put on finishing cleaning up touches to the grounds, prior to the coming to the exposition today of President Roosevelt for the Georgia Day celebration.

Governor Swanson has about completed all the arrangements for the celebration of Virginia Day at the Exposition next Wednesday, June 12th, and he left Richmond Saturday evening at 7 o'clock for Norfolk, so as to be on the scene a little in advance. He has issued a proclamation closing all the State offices Wednesday and making the day a public holiday. In his proclamation he urges all Virginians and former residents of the State to join in making "home coming week" a marked success.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Today's Telegraphic News.

The President at Jamestown.

Jamestown Exposition Grounds, June 10.—There was a large crowd at the exposition grounds today to welcome President Roosevelt and to hear his Georgia Day speech, as well as his address before the National Editorial Association. The weather was fine. There was just enough breeze to keep the sun's heat from oppressing the soldiers and sailors on march and the crowds on shore had a full view of the impressive naval review.

The President in his Georgia Day speech referred in a feeling manner to the fact that Georgia was his mother's native State, "the State," he said," from which I draw half the blood in my veins. The Georgia State House at the exposition is a replica of my grandfather's house at Roswell, Ga., where my mother passed her youth and where she was married to my father. The President then referred to many chapters in the history of Georgia, and subsequently to his visits to every State in the union since he became chief magistrate and his observations while on his tour. Among other things he said. "Now and then we meet well-meaning people who have a genuine horror and dread of all rich men and think of them as being set apart by peculiar vice and iniquity. Now and then we meet equally well-meaning rich men who have an equally irrational dread of those whom they style 'labor leaders.' In each case I think the hostility is in large part due to a want of sympathy caused by complete ignorance of the men who arouse such distrust or anger. As a matter of fact, if we take a number of old men of large fortune and a like number of wage-workers, we find that in their essential human nature they are all alike. In each group we find men as wise and as foolish, as good and as bad as in the other group. Mr. Roosevelt then reviewed the present commercal conditions in this country and made some practical suggestions concerning the same. "We have, he said, "inherited and developed a superbly self-reliant individualism in this country. I most earnestly hope that it will not be lost, that it will never be exchanged for a deadening socialism." He made references also to his railroad policy, and the safeguarding of lives on the rail and on the water.

Mr. Roosevelt in addressing the National Editorial Association gave some seasonable advice to the wielders to the quill concerning sensationalism and yellow journalism, although the speech in the main referred to the resources of the United States and politico-economic questions.

A Terrible Recital.

Chicago, June 10.—Miss Bertha Strilke, a Russian political fugitive, who spent nine months in a prison at Odessa, horrified members of a club here today by the recital of the experience which she says is the common fate of all female prisoners in penal institutions in the Czar's land. Miss Strilke is 24 years old, and she is of Jewish birth, was the associate editor of a Yiddish paper. "I was placed with the division of those who were to be sent to Siberia for life service," she said. "In the next cell to me was another girl revolutionist whose only crime was that she had joined our protest against the Jewish massacre. I heard the guards plan to enter the cells of this girl and myself and to assault us. That night I fought away the man who tried to put his hand in my cell to unlock my door. I struck his hand with a stool every time he put it through the outer bars. About midnight I heard the other woman scream. She begged her assailant to leave her. For hours her cries rang in my ears. The man who tried to enter my cell went to the other cell and the two guards remained there till morning. Night after night I could hear the screams of the tortured women. Young girls of 16 were selected as victims for the officers. The older women were left to the soldiers. My mother visited me at the prison. When she heard the cries of some of the women she became so excited that she fell in a swoon, burst a blood vessel and died on the floor. This misfortune attracted the attention of my rich friends. Through their aid shortly afterwards I was released."

Letter from the Late Mrs. Hau.

Zurich, June 10.—Copies have just been received here of the letter which Mrs. Lina Hau, wife of Prof. Carl Hau, now under arrest at Karrue, Germany, on the charge of killing his mother-in-law, Frau Moliter, wrote before her suicide on Friday.

The letter reads: "My name is Lina Hau, nee Moliter. I come from Treves. I am 31 years old. I have a house in Baden-Baden. It is utterly impossible for me to bear any longer the grief I feel for my husband, now so far removed from me. Therefore, I have decided to leave the world, hard though it is to go when I think of my darling child." A considerable sum of money was found on Mrs. Hau's person,

Reported, Assassination of Caberera.

Mexico, City, June 10—Definite information as to the reported assassination of President Caberera, of Guatemala, at Guatemala City, is eagerly awaited here. Owing to the dispute with Caberera in which Mexico has been involved following the assassination here of former President Barilla, has more intensified the feeling.

News of the reported assassination came in a private dispatch and there is no confirmation; Knowing condition of affairs in Guatemala City and considering the fact that an attack was made recently on Caberera's life, it is thought the report may be true.

Charged with Embezzlement.

Naples, June 10.—Two former employes of the Cuban Electricity Company and a woman who accompanied them, all Spaniards, were arrested on the arrival of the steamship Laxel Lazio, from New York, charged with embezzlement. They had over $200,000 in American bank notes and securities in their possession. Jose Sanche and his wife, Maria, two of the accused persons, had most of the money. One hundred and ninety thousand dollars was found on Sanche while his wife had in her possession $40,000 in cash and $20,000 in bonds.

Entente Signal.

Paris, June 10.—The new Franco-Japanese entente was signed today by M. Pichon, the French Foreign Minister, and M. Kurino, the Japanese Ambassador. The principal provisions of the agreement are for the maintenance of Chinese integrity as well as the territory claimed.

Threatened With Anarchy.

Paris, June 10—With the Mayors and other local authorities of half a dozen towns in the wine-growing district leading the revolt of the wine-growers after offering their resignations, and the retirement of every communal authority in the affected district expected, southern France is threatened with an active reign of anarchy.

Over half a million people are participating in the peaceful revolt, and they have sworn to stand the ground. From the Spanish frontier to the Rhone, a district including four departments, the revolt is in full swing.

The resolutions adopted by the wine growers pledge these communities to resist the payment of taxes until the government votes the relief demanded in the law forbidding the sale of unadulterated wines.

Already the Mayor of Nabonne has resigned, that being the signal for the opening of the revolt. It is expected that before night resignations of all other officers in the district will be received.

Even if the government grants the demands of the wine-growers, there is scant possibility of relief from the conditions which have driven the residents of the district to revolt. Over production is alleged to be the real cause of the business depression which has made it impossible for the wine growers to make a living.

Princess Anne Hotel Destroyed.

Norfolk, Va., June 10.—Fire in the splendid Princess Anne Hotel at Virginia Beach early today resulted in the total destruction of the big hotel and a loss of $185,000, and in at least two fatalities, a maid and a porter, both colored.

All the guests escaped, some of them after harrowing experiences and with a loss of their personal effects.

The flames were discovered by Carl Boschen, of Norfolk, who, unable to find any fire extinguishers, rushed through the halls and gave the alarm. Through prompt action many of the guests doubtless owe their lives.

After consuming the hotel the flames spread to the electric power station and the passenger station of the Norfolk and Southern Railway, both of which were destroyed. The Princess Anne Hotel was one of the most fashionable, being the favorite assembling place of Virginians and the scene of many notable social affairs.

Assailant Hangs Himself.

New York, June 10.—Caught as he was coming out of a tenement in Washington street early today, where it is charged he had attempted to assault Rose Ashkar, a 12-year-old Syrian girl, Harry Retig, 20 years old, committed suicide in the Church street station by hanging himself. The improvised noose was made of two handkerchiefs, a cravat and pieces of his shirt. Rose aroused the household with her screams about 4 o'clock when she found Retig leaning over her bed. Her 13 year-old brother and her firandfather ran to her assistance, but Retig knocked them down and escaped. Later he was arrested.

The building occupied by John M. Rodgers, in which the lottery tickets and other papers were printed, will be sold at public auction on June 20.

Charges Parent with Insanity.

New York, June 10.—A discordant note marred the music of the wedding bells of May Hopper, who a few days ago became the wife of E. W. Vanderbilt, of Brooklyn. A daughter of the bridegroom alleges that her father, acting under "spiril" advice transmitted to him by his bride, has made a will bequeathing his property to the latter. The daughter asked the Supreme Court to investigate the sanity of her parent.

The Haywood Trial.

Boise, Idaho, June 10.—Steve Adams arrived here this morning and is emphatic in his declaration that Harry Orchard is a "monumental liar."

Orchard resumed the tale of his crime at 9 o'clock this morning when the trial was resumed. Two years of Orchard's life intervening between the closing of the story, Saturday morning, and where he will tell of entering the penitentiary, remain to be reviewed.

Reported Revival of Boxerism.

Victoria, June 10.—A revival of boxerism has broken out in North China, according to reports brought by the steamer Teller Ephon today. Numerous Chinese have been arrested by the authories for agaitating and praticing boxerism. Many natives were induced to smear their door posts with blood, one of the customs of boxers, on the assumption that this renders the occupants invulnerable when fighting.

Searching for Assailant.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 10.—An armed posse is searching the woods about Ship Road, a small station along the main line of the Pennsylvania Railroad, for a colored man who made an assault upon Mrs. Dunlap, a young woman, of Downington. MEMORIAL DAY AT ARLINGTON.

Arlington Cemetery, particularly that part which Congress has set aside as a last resting place for the dead heroes of the Confederacy, yesterday afternoon resounded with the praises of the brave deeds of the gallant Southrons who sacrificed their lives on the altar of every sentiment and effort represented by the stars and bars of the Confederate government.

The exercises were conducted under the auspices of the Confederate Veterans' Association, the United Sons of Confederate Veterans, United Daughters of the Confederacy, and the Southern Relief Society of the District of Columbia.

At 4 o'clock the Thirteenth U. S. Cavalry band rendered "America." Rev. Dr. R. H. McKim, chaplain of Camp 171, U. C. V., delivered the invocation, and a quartet sang "Abide with Me."

The oration of Hon. John G. Capers, of South Carolina, the keynote of which was honor and reverence to the flag of the Confederacy and unshaken loyalty and fidelity to the stars and stripes, was the feature of the exercises. Rev. Dr. McKim also made an address.

The "Southern Cross" presented by Washington Camp, No. 305, United Sons Confederate Veterans, was unveiled by Miss Carro Benning Green, camp sponsor, assisted by Miss Elizabeth Gould, maid of honor.

A delegation from Lee Camp and many other Alexandrians attended the services.

D. A. R.

At the meeting of the national board of the Daughters of the American Revolution, held in Washington last week, President General Mrs. Donald McLean presiding, it was decided to authorize the immediate completion of the north, south and east porticos of Continental Hall, which is being built in that city by the Daughters. The treasurer general reported that there is $63,000 in the permanent fund with which to defray the expenses for the completion of the hall, and perhaps before the next annual congress of the Daughters the Continental Hall will be nearly, it not entirely, completed.

Local Matters.

Sun and Tide Table.

Sun rises tomorrow at 4:33 a. m. and sets at 7:25 p. m. High water at 8:03 a. m. and 8:37 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section partly cloudy tonight and Tuesday; fresh northeast to east winds.

Personal.

Miss Pauline Pretzfelder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs Max Pretzfelder, of this city, and Mr. Morris Blumenfeld, of Washington, will be married Sunday, June 16, at 3:30 o'clock, at the Hotel Rammel, in the presence of only the immediate relatives. The ceremony will be performed by Rabbi Stern, of Washington.

Mrs. Hattie Lambert, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Armistead, sailed on Friday last from Philadelphia for Europe and will spend the summer in Germany. They will also visit Italy while en route home.

Mr. Harry M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax, whose recent illness was mentioned in the Gazette, has so far recovered as to be able to resume his duties in the District assessor's office in Washington.

Among those who have passed the examination at the University of Virginia for the degree of bachelor of law is Mr. Harry Miller Strickler, of Alexandria.

Mr. R. L. Gordon, of Louisa, was in the city today looking after his congressional interests. He appeared as though he had much to encourage him.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Caton have gone to Jamestown to attend the exposition.

Mr. C. C. Carlin has returned from Stafford where on Saturday he made two speeches. He says he is certain of winning in the approaching congressional primary.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Borden have gone on a visit to Richmond.

At St. Paul's Church last night Miss Taylor sang as an offertory "If I Forget Thee, O, Jerusalem." It was a rich treat, even to St. Paul's congregation, who have the good fortune to hear many beautiful solos. Miss Taylor has a rich, full voice, and knows well how to bring out its pathos in a manner that is very pleasing to those who had the privilege of hearing her.

CORPORATION COURT.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.]

Three of the regular jury having been excused, Henry Strauss, James B. Fitzgerald and Martin P. Greene were summoned from bystanders to complete the panel. Mr. Henry Strauss was selected as foreman.

The following true bills were presented:

The case of the Com. vs. H. B. Dameron, for petty larceny, was nol. prossed.

The will of the late John H. Watkins was admitted to probate and his widow, Sallie C. Watkins, qualified as executrix. All of his estate was left to his wife during her life time and at her death to her children.

Com. vs. George B. Cluous, indictment for larceny of two horses of Peter T. Harrington; plea of guilty entered; sentence of three years in the penitentiary.

Disorderly Conduct.

A corporal and four soldiers from Fort Hunt came to this city Saturday night and later carried some bottled beer to the neighborhood of Wilkes and Royal streets, and early yesterday morning they proceeded thither for the purpose of drinking the same. While so engaged they became disorderly and attracted considerable attention. Later they appeared on north Lee street, and upon being refused admission to one of the houses, hurled a stone through a window. Officers Bell and Garvey soon arrested the five men, and this morning they were arraigned in the Police Court. A sergeant from the fort was present, and he having assured Justice Caton that the accused would be punished when they returned to that fortification, they were turned over to him.

The different purposes of soldiers when enjoying leaves of absence are often noticeable. While the men referred to above were bent upon drinking liquor and visiting disorderly resorts, another member of the same command, solitary and alone, was standing at King and Royal streets singing hymns and by his example endeavoring to turn his companions and others from the broad road to destruction.

The President and Party.

President Roosevelt and his party left the Washington navy yard shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon aboard the converted yacht Mayflower for the Jamestown Exposition. The Mayflower passed this city half an hour later. The presidential party was scheduled to reach Hampton Roads at 8 o'clock this morning and will leave at 5 o'clock in the afternoon on the return trip to Washington, arriving there early Tuesday morning. While the trip was being made down the Potomac the President remained on the deck of the Mayflower and on a number of occasions waved greetings to the passing steamers and small craft met coming up the river.

Statue of Sacred Heart.

A statue of the sacred heart has been placed in a niche on the south side of the altar in St. Mary's Church, the unveiling exercises being conducted at the services of the League of the Sacred Heart. The statute, which was made in France, is four feet high and is cream colored, with gold trimmings. A handsome railing will be placed about the base of the figure.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Frances Hayes, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

Thomas Pelton, colored, charged with disorderly conduct was fined $5. Louisa Taylor, colored, charged with interfering with the officer who arrested Pelton, was fined $2 50.

James Banes, colored, charged with improper conduct on the street, was fined $5.

Harrie Davis, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $5. Edward Davis and Samuel Gant, both colored, charged with a similar offense, were dismissed.

A white man, charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed, and the man who complained against him was fined $5 for assault.

Ann Russell, charged with being drunk on the street, was fined $2.50.

Joshua Williams, colored, charged with assaulting Virginia Fair, colored, was dismissed, and the complainant fined $5 for improper conduct.

Four soldiers, charged with disorderly conduct, were turned over to the officers of Fort Hunt.

Meeting of Trades Union.

A special meeting of the Alexandria Trades Council will be held tonight at 8 o'clock in the Alexandria National Bank building, corner of King and Royal streets. A call has been extended to all union men in Alexandria and Washington to attend the meeting, it being announced that business of unusual importance will be transacted. It is generally reported that the newly-formed union of electric railway employees and its relations with the company will be considered.

Train Derailed.

A north bound vegetable train of the Southern Railway was derailed near Bealeton at 7:30 o'clock this morning, and two bridges at the scene of the accident were seriously damaged, blocking both tracks. No one was injured. A wrecking train was sent from this city as soon as possible to replace the cars upon the rails and to repair the bridges. In the meantime Southern trains have been using the tracks of the Washington Southern Railway.

Returned to Their Homes.

A young man living on south Fairfax street and a young woman residing in the northwestern section of this city went to Luna Park last Saturday, but failed to return to their homes at night. The police of this city and Washington were notified of their disappearance and their parents were occasioned considerable anxiety until they reappeared today.

Forfeited their Collateral.

Lieutenant Bettis and Officers Nicholson and Arrington last night arrested Eva Baker, Fannie Kimball, Ray Moore and May Belmont, proprietresses of houses on north Lee street, charged with selling liquor without a license. Each left $50 collateral for her appearance this morning, but failed to appear and forfeited the same.

Reception to Mrs. Henderson.

As heretofore stated, Mrs. Lizzie George Henderson, president general of the Daughters of the Confederacy, will be entertained this evening by the Junior Daughters of Mary Custis Lee Chapter. All the Confederate auxiliaries will be present.

Children's Day.

Children's Day was celebrated in Trinity M. E. Church last night. There was a large attendance, and the exercises were interesting and enjoyable throughout. All who participated acquitted themselves in a creditable manner.

Lists Posted.

Some excitement was caused on Fayette street, near Cameron, Saturday by a row between a colored man and a colored woman. The row took place in a small frame house, during which it is said bottles were hurled by the combatants.

The weather yesterday was ideal throughout. It was that of a mild June day, and was enjoyed by old and young alike. There was animation in the streets all day, especially in the afternoon. The ferryboat and electric trains brought many visitors to the city.

Mr. Joseph Hardbower, has filed suit in the Circuit Court for Alexandria county against the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway Company to recover $500 for the destruction of a horse and wagon, alleged to have been struck by one of the company's cars at the south and of the new highway bridge on March 28.

Several children of Neil Myers, colored, living in the extreme northeastern section of the city, were left in the house this morning. They started a fire and the clothing of one of the children, a four-year-old girl, took fire and she was seriously burned.

The New York Stock Market.

New York, June 10.—The tone of the market during the first hour continued strong. Outside of a few leaders the room traders were committed to the bear side and endeavored to force a general reaction. At the end of the hour prices were generally below Saturday's closing prices.

Badly Mixed Up.

Abraham Brown, of Winterton, N. Y., had a very remarkable experience; He says: "Doctors got badly mixed up over me; one said heart disease; two said it was kidney; the fourth, blood poison, and the fifth stomach and liver trouble; but none of them helped me; so my wife advised trying Electric Bitters, which are restoring me to perfect health. One bottle did me more good than all the five doctors prescribed." Guaranted to cure blood poison, weakness and all stomach, liver and an, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney complaints, by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggist, 50c.

Steve Adams's Confession.

Steve Adams, another prisoner witness for the State in the case of W. D. Haywood, is now on the way to Boise, Idaho, coming from the jail at Wallace, Idaho, where he was held pending trial on the charge of murder. Adams, according to Harry Orchard, was a partner of the assassin in many of the "bumping off expeditions," successful and unsuccessful, to which Orchard has confessed.

Adams also confessed last year, but he repudiated the document when he faced the gallows. The confession is, however, sworn to and in writing. It shows careful correction and interlineation in Adams's own handwriting. Astounding though it may seem, those who have seen Adams's confession say it surpasses Orchard's story of murder. The list of Adams's alleged victims is not as long as that with which Orchard credits himself, but this is said to be because Steve still-hunted a single quarry, while Harry, to use his own words, "did not care whether he killed one man or fifty," as he "felt at that time."

A Real Wonderland.

South Dakota, with its rich silver mines, bonanza farms, wide ranges and strange natural formations, is a veritable wonderland. At Mound City, in the home of Mrs. E. D. Clapp, a wonderful case of healing has lately occurred. Her son seemed near death with lung and throat trouble. "Exhausting coughing spells occurred every five minutes," writes Mrs. Clapp, "when I began giving Dr. King's New Discovery, the great medicine, that saved his life and completely cured him." Guaranteed for coughs and colds, throat and lung troubles, by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

DON'T LET JUNE GO BY without looking after your next winter's coal supply. See our advertisement. W. A. SMOOT & CO.

Chicken That can Talk.

After ten years of experimenting Clinton H. Willis, a rancher, on the Monterey road near San Jose, Cal., has produced a chicken that can talk. The fowl is the sixth generation of a cross between a parrot and a guinea hen and in its every characteristic except the lower half of its bill and the arrangement of its toes the bird is a chicken. The upper half of the bill is straight like that of the guinea hen, while the lower is clearly a parrot beak. Its toes are arranged two and two instead of three and one, as in the barnyard fowl. At present the chicken's vocabulary is limited to "Morning, Clint; chaw terbacker, Clint," and a swear word.
